

§100 LITURGICAL LAW FOUND IN THE LITURGICAL BOOKS

N.B. Canon 2 in the Code of Canon Law notes that the vast majority of liturgical law is found in the liturgical books themselves.

§101 Current Liturgical Books

§101.1 Policy The current liturgical books approved by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops [USCCB] and confirmed (confirmatio and now recognitio) by the Apostolic See shall be used in ritual celebrations. Other ritual books approved solely by the USCCB not requiring recognitio shall also be used.

§102 Adaptation by the Minister

§101.1 Policy Celebrants (ordained) and leaders of prayer (laity) shall attend to and use the adaptations permitted in the ritual text to accommodate a rite to the circumstances of the candidates and others who are present for the celebration.
